THE CHURCH TO BE A ROYAL DIADEN

The Church is Jehovah's Peculiar Treasure.

Divine Purpose In Calling the Church. "A Peculiar People"-"Not Many Rich"-"Not Many Learned"-"Not Many Noble"-"Chiefly the Poor of This World"-"Rich in Faith"-Heart Condition the Basis of Selection. Cutting, Polishing, Mounting the Jewels-God's Workmanship to Be Manifested-Lessons to Angels and

April W.-Pastor Russell's discourse today was based on the text: "Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the band of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God." -Issish 62:3.

The Pastor introduced his discourse with call of the Gospel Age is separate and apart from the salvation provided for the world in the next Age. During the Gospel Age God has been gathering out of the world a class which He declares shall be a royal diadem-not on His head, as if an added glory, but in His hand, representative of power. By manifesting what He has done with the Church, Jehovah will show forth His own praises, in that He will reveal features of His character never before exhibited.

The permission of sin, the Pastor maintained, has given opportunity for God to develop His great Plan for the eradication of evil. The Almighty could easily have prevented Satan from bringing sin into the Universe; but He foresaw the glorious results which He will eventually accomplish through the permission of evil. Therefore He did not interfere when Satan tempted our first parents, but permitted all mankind to be born in an imperfect and sinful condition.

Then the Pastor showed how Adam's disobedience brought death into the world. He next explained how Jesus' death guarantees the cancellation of Adam's penalty, and the establishment of the Messianic Kingdom for the recovery of the race from sin and death. To assist the Redcemer in the great work of human uplift, he asserted, God purposed to select from amongst mankind a Church class. So a call went forth for those who would separate themselves from the world, take up their cross and follow Jesus,

"Zealous of Good Works."

For nearly nineteen centuries, the Pastor declared. God has been gathering this people from various nations. As the Apostle tells us, these are "a peculir people, zealous of good work : These good works, the speaker claimed, are not the building of hospitals, asylums, schools, etc., but the same kind of good works in which our Lord engaged at His First Advent. The Scriptures assert that Jesus "went about doing good." In line with this is the Apostle's injunction, "Do good unto all men, especially to the Household of Faith."

Paster Bussell then pointed out the qualifications which constitute the basis of selection. God desires those whose hearts are right. Here the speaker digressed a little to explain that this does not mean that the nonelect are to be thrown to devils and roasted to all eternity. God is not premeditating evil against even those who are His enemies through wicked works, but is merely calling a class to assist the Redeemer in recovering mankind from sin and death conditions.

According to the Scriptures, the Pastor declared, God is not now choosing many rich, learned and noble, to constitute the Church class. The rich have plenty to satisfy their hearts, and therefore do not feel their need. The intellectual rather look down upon the average of humanity as not knowing any better than to believe the story of man's fall and other Bible stories. He deplored the fact that the world in what they think is wisdom ignore God's Word, in which His Plan for man's recovery from degradation, sin and death is closely connected with the fall of man and the redemption effected by Jesus' death on Calvary. Whoever omits this part of the Bible loses the connecting link, and cannot perceive God's Plan of salvation.

The Bible says that not many noble are called. The speaker showed that the noble-minded know that they are morally above the average, and therefore have a self-satisfied feeling which prevents their realizing their need of a Savior.

"Ye Are His Workmanship." The Pastor next discussed the class whom God has accepted and forgiven through Jesus' blood. As the transforming work of the Holy Spirit goes on in their hearts, they become noble characters. Nobility of heart is what God desires-loyalty to Him, to righteousness, to truth, to the brethren.

The speaker likened the Lord's work in this class to that of the lapidary. As a diamond properly cot will radiate the glories of the sunshine, so God's jewels, when cut and polished, will show forth His praises. In the First Resurrection these jewels will be mounted in the gold of the Divine nature and placed in God's diadem.
